HEARTFELT GRATITUDE TO THE EHS STUDIO VOICE TEACHERS

Melissa O'Neill, Deb Schlager,
Chad Shultis, Linda Smith and Tom Witry

Production Staff

Dr. David O. Henderson, Director

David came to Edina from an active professional singing and private teaching schedule. He has appeared with many Twin Cities groups, including solo appearances with the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, Minnesota Orchestra and the Plymouth Music Series (now Vocal Essence) Ensemble Singers. He came to the Twin Cities after singing for several years in New York with the Waverly Consort, Gregg Smith Singers and the Norman Luboff Choir. He received a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Minnesota. When not working at school he can often be seen with his wife Kris in their front yard in Edina playing with their three children, 11-year-old Ryan, 9-year-old Erin and 6-year-old Megan.

John Command, Choreographer

John returns to the Edina stage for his 21st Current Jam. His most recent work is as director of "Mame", "Sweeney Todd"; named one of the best shows of the year, "A Chorus Line" and "Damn Yankees" at Bloomington Civic Theater. He will return next year to do "Best Little Whore House in Texas" starring Sally Struthers, "Follies", "Jesus Christ Superstar" and "Wonderful Town". John's last musical at Edina was "Mame". Since then he has choreographed the 1988 Super Bowl Pre-Game Show, the Disney film "Newsies", "Sleepless in Seattle" and Prince's "Purple Rain". His television credits include "The Golden Girls", "Step By Step", "Evening Shade", "Perfect Strangers", and "Getting By". We are very happy to have John back at Edina working with our talented students.

Dr. Robert Ouren, Back up Band Director

Bob is currently an instrumental music instructor at the Fine Arts Interdisciplinary Resource (FAIR) School. He taught at Edina High School from 1991-2000 and will return in 2005-06 to Edina as the Teaching and Learning Specialist for Fine Arts as well as teaching in the Music Department. He earned his undergraduate degree from Winona State University and his Masters and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Minnesota. He studied conducting with Dr. Barry Kopetz and trumpet with Dr. Richard Lindner, Dr. David Baldwin and Gary Bordner of the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. He is past president of the Minnesota chapter of the American School Band Directors Association, a former board member of the Minnesota Band Directors Association, and is currently a member of the Board of Directors of MMEA. He lives in Edina with his wife Karen. Their daughter Karissa, Class of 2000, teaches kindergarten and their son Matt is a junior at Hopkins High School.

Scott Fahy, Production Consultant

Scott is responsible for the sound system, lighting design, videowall IMAG and the audio recording of Current Jam. Scott has worked with Sonic Flood, Rebecca St. James, The Bodeans, Widespread Panic, 10,000 Maniacs, Sounds of Blackness, Freddie Jones Band, CeCe Winans, Johnny Lang, John Michael Montgomery, Pam Tillis, The Blenders, Patti Loveless and numerous local and regional acts. He is president of OMNI Productions, a full service production management firm. He joined the Creative Productions Department at Living Word Christian Center in 2003. This is Scott's 17th year with Current Jam.

Diana J. Leland, Varsity Choir Director

Diana will retire in June after teaching for a total of 32 years, including 28 years with the Edina Public Schools. She also serves as district Teaching and Learning Specialist for visual arts, music and theater. She returned to Edina High School from Valley View Middle School in September 1999 to direct the Varsity Choir. She has served as the General Manager for the Dale Warland Singers as well as state, division and national president for the American Choral Directors Association. She was the recipient of the 2003 F. Melius Christiansen Lifetime Achievement Award and the 2004 Arts Advocacy Leadership Arts Coordinator Award. We wish Diana many happy and healthy years of retirement!

Andy Thompson, Arranger

A 1998 graduate of Edina High School, Andy received his bachelor's degree in music composition from the University of Michigan. As a composer and arranger, his music has been performed by the University of Michigan Jazz Ensemble, and he has been commissioned by the Greater Twin Cities Youth Symphonies and the FAIR School in Crystal, MN. In addition, he has scored several award winning short and feature length films. As a multi-instrumentalist, he has performed with many local and national artists, including Dan Wilson (from Semi-sonic), Mike Doughty (from Soul Coughing), Atmosphere, Heirospecs, Robert Skoro and members of Nickel Creek. He has also recently been writing music for the Cartoon Network's Hi Hi Ami Yami Yumi. Andy plans to continue traveling the world composing and performing music.

Grant Ashling

Grant is returning to Current Jam for his 11th year this time as Lighting Designer. Previously he has done everything from stage managing to assistant production manager. He started his lighting design career as a student here at Edina High School. He has now started his own lighting design company, Crescent Moon Productions. He has run lights in many different venues like Grace Church, Living Word Christian Center, The Qwest and for many different artists including Winona Judd, Prince, CeCe Winans, Avalon, New Sound, Frank Sinatra Jr., SYNERGY, and even President Bush. Grant lives in New Hope and enjoys spending time with his fiancée and his 2 daughters, Rory, age 8, and Haley who will be 1 in July.
